James Maloy, of Johnstown, has patented an arrangement for depositing passenger tickets on passenger trains that effectually prevents "knocking down" on the part of conductors, should any of that class assist to indulge in that reprehensible practice.

A former Cambrian, now farming in Indiana county, recently offered a wagon load of apples in Indiana at one dollar per bushel, or thirty cents per half bushel, and it is needless to say that every buyer wanted a half bushel exactly. When the apples were all sold, the farmer discovered that there were only two halves in a bushel instead of four. So says the Indiana Messenger.

The wife of John Costello, of Martinsburg, Blair county, recently "lit out" with $600 belonging to her husband, who lived her to Pittsburgh and instituted suit against her for stealing, but subsequently compromised by impressing the kiss of forgiveness upon her lips and taking her home with him, where it is to be hoped they will henceforth live in peace and harmony.

A splendid revolver, fully loaded, and guaranteed to go off without making any noise, or injuring either person or property, is now on exhibition at the Thompson store, where the most splendid goods in the country are also displayed in great profusion. Bob, Jeems, or the Major will take great pleasure in showing visitors how the aforesaid revolver operates.

Jacob Peterson, of White township, Indiana county, while visiting his friends in Jenner township, Somerset county, on Saturday night of last week, had a team of dark bay horses stolen. The horses had each a heavy black collar and black tail.
One of them has a white hind foot and the other a bald face. The age of the horse is between eleven and twelve years, and the mare between five and six. A large reward is offered for their recovery.

The "Forty Hours Devotion" will commence in the Church of the Holy Name, in this place, on Sunday next, and continue until Wednesday morning.
Father Christy will be assisted in the labors of the occasion by several neighboring clergymen, and it is to be hoped that by all the members of the congregation, and especially by the politicians, exultant and otherwise, who profess that faith.

On Wednesday last, the feast of St.
Teresa, Sister Mary Celestine (Miss Aggie McGurn, of Allegheny City), and Sister Mary Aloysius (Miss Maggie Thomas, of Allegheny township, this county), made their profession by taking the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience, in the chapel of Mt. Galitzin Seminary in this place, the novitiate of the Sisters of St. Joseph of the Pittsburgh Diocese. Father Christy, the spiritual director of the order, officiated on the occasion.

This is evidently not a healthy year for the political aspirations of Cambria county editors, although it would be better for the editors, and might be as well for the people, if the opposite was the fact.
L. D. Woodruff, Esq., prior editor of the has been led to the slaughter, he having been defeated in Tuesday's election for Clerk of the District Court by a majority

1,445—Woodruff 1,292.

Posters have or will be issued this stock, farm implements, etc., and a farm 19th; also, the sale at public outcry, on Monday next, of 200 acres of cleared land, with plank house, and 25 acres of wooded land, in Munster township, the property of Aug. Glass, and live stock, farming utensils, corn, etc., by John B. Miller, of Carroll township, on Saturday, 23rd inst.

A young man named Geo. W. Myers, residing at Livestock, fell from the platform of a railroad bridge on the West Penn railroad, on Saturday last, near Blairsville, and received such injuries that he died from their effects. Deceased had been traveling with his company, and had returned to Blairsville, where he was walking home, a distance of five miles, when he met with the terrible accident which terminated his life. Young Myers' father was killed about one year ago by a falling iron from him.

Young friend and neighbor, Daniel H. Zahm, was knocked senseless and painfully injured, on Saturday evening last, in consequence of the snapping in two of a spring-pole with which he was assisting to secure a load of straw on his wagon.
The end of the broken pole flew up and struck Mr. Zahm in the face, prostrating and injuring him as above stated, and for a time it was feared that his right eye was destroyed; but we are glad to say that the fear proved groundless, and also that Mr. Zahm is about again, although obliged to wear one side of his face in a sling.

AN ALLEGED HEAVY FORGERY.—The people of this city will be startled to learn this morning that Mr. George C. Smith, a member of Council from the Eighth Ward, and head and front of the Enterprise Trading Company, which deals in sewing machines, etc., and does business in the Opera House building, is in great trouble.
He is an alleged forger to the extent of about thirteen thousand dollars. The only information we have at present on the subject of the forgery is in the fact that Smith made his appearance at the county jail on Tuesday evening, and requested Sheriff Huff to confine him in one of the cells in that institution. Noticing that he was fringed with excitement the Sheriff told Smith that he could not comply with his wishes in the premises without a commitment having first been made out authorizing him to do so, and at the same time asked him what was the matter. Smith replied with hesitation that he was in great trouble, that he had committed a forgery, and desired to be imprisoned, adding that he would be arrested in a few days, and that he desired to see no one.

The Sheriff prevailed upon the self-confessed forger to go to the American Hotel and remain over night, telling him that he had no desire to place him behind bars.
Smith did go to the hotel and remain over night, but before seven o'clock the following morning he again made his appearance at the jail and again, where the Sheriff was prisoned, repeating the statement made the previous evening to the effect that he had committed a forgery. Persisting in his request for some time, the Sheriff at last reluctantly complied with his wishes and locked him in one of the cells. Upon being interrogated as to the extent of the forgery Smith was silent, but it is since learned to be in the neighborhood of thirteen thousand dollars. Upon his arrival at the jail he is said to have been laboring under intense excitement, while persons who conversed with him aver that his excitement actually bordered on insanity. His eyes were bloodshot and his every movement plainly told of the terrible agony which convulsed his whole being. The persons whose names he is said to have forged are his father, Jacob Smith, his brother-in-law, William Smith, and his father-in-law, Daniel Gibbons, from the vicinity of Dunsmuirville, this county.—Altoona Tribune, 16th.

A LOST DAUGHTER FOUND.—In Saturday's issue we made a note of the fact that J. S. Hoke, who shot our former townsman, W. W. Marbourg, for alleged violation of his marital rights, had found his kidnapped daughter in the neighborhood of a long and weary search. We are now prepared to give further particulars of the affair, and whether Hoke's wife is guilty or innocent, we cannot tell, but we do admit the conduct of a man whose solicitude for his only child led him to undertake a journey of 18,000 miles, and to visit the principal cities in the Union, where he might have the least hope of finding her.

It is about six years ago since Mr. Hoke, then a lumber merchant of Atchison, Kansas, married a Miss Leland. Five years after he lived happily in which time a beautiful girl was born. Then he became jealous of W. W. Marbourg's attentions, and shot him in the street. His wife fled with the child, Hoke was attended for attention, and he recovered. Marbourg recovered and died. Then Mr. Hoke began to look for the child.

He journeyed to a small village in New York, where he expected to find her, but was disappointed. He returned to Kansas and prepared for an extended search. For six months he went from one city to another in the Union and Canada. After he had traveled eighteen thousand miles he arrived in Brooklyn. As he had done in other cities, he wandered through the streets looking for the child, scanning the face of every little one whom he met.

On Tuesday afternoon he walked down Willoughby street. As he passed No. 123 he noticed a woman with a child in her arms, and he followed her. He entered the rooms of Mrs. E. C. Leland, his mother-in-law.
He quietly went to the Sheriff's office, told his story, and made a sworn complaint against the woman. He was then taken to the Sheriff's office, where he was held in custody. The child was in Mrs. Leland's arms, and she made a desperate resistance before they obtained custody.

Mr. Hoke had not seen his wife since she left him, and he says, knowing that she loves another man better than she does him, he does not want to see her, but he will have her child at the cost of his life if necessary.
—Johnstown Tribune.

RIGHT ON THE RECORD.—Now and then a rumor reaches the public ear that some kind of a scandal is being spread, or that somebody has been "taken in and done for" on a sewing machine, or some other labor-saving invention. In a few instances these distasteful rumors have been ventilated through the newspapers, or one or two cases have been recently reported, wherein a sewing machine agent is said to have been granted the privilege of leaving machines at certain houses until he would call for them, and in return what purported to be an acknowledgment of such fact, duly signed by the proprietors of such houses, but what afterward proved to be a mere fiction, and payable within a specified time. We say stories of this kind have been told time and again, but whether true or false it is not our business now to inquire. We merely wish to say that, if true, Mr. M. L. Brown, of this place, agent for the renowned and unsurpassable Singer Sewing Machine, is not the kind of a man who would do such a thing.
He is a man of high character, and he has been living in this country for many years, and would not stoop to such a mean and dishonest trick. He is a man of high character, and he has been living in this country for many years, and would not stoop to such a mean and dishonest trick.
